

Liquefaction Methane Compression

Duration

2days 10Hours

No. of Attendees

Max. 25 Attendees

Language

English

Overview

In this course the trainees will learn about the liquefaction – methane compression process and what are the hazards of exposure. Besides, the basic knowledge about the equipments functions and the purpose of, and how the process flows in each unit will be discussed. They will also learn essentials of the troubleshooting operation.

Topics

- Hazards Exposure.
- Equipments Functions.
- Purpose of Units.
- Process Flow Diagram (PFD's).
- Operation troubleshooting.

